

Follow 111k

Follow

Like 2.8m

Today's Paper Archive ePaper eBooks Classifieds Subscriptions Mobile Apps Social

THE HINDU Today's Paper » NATIONAL » KARNATAKA

'Use the potential of the youth'

Staff Correspondent

Deputy Commissioner S.T. Anjankumar releasing a career hand book at the career counselling programme organised by The Hindu EducationPlus in Davangere on Saturday.

The government should utilise the potential of the youth for the county's growth, Deputy Commissioner S.T. Anjankumar has said.

Speaking after inaugurating The Hindu EducationPlus annual career counselling session at Smt Parvathamma Shamnur Shivshankarappa auditorium, AVK first Grade College, here on Saturday, he called upon students to gain mastery over the subject of their interest.

Government First Grade College principal and consulting advisor to SJM Vidyapeeta, G.N. Mallikarjunappa spoke about the career options in the field of engineering. Resource person Kala Subramanyam spoke about the career options other than engineering and medicine.

Officials of the Karnataka Examinations Authority clarified the doubts of students and parents on the counseling process.

The State Bank of India is the title sponsor while Dr T Thimmaiah Institute of Technology, KGF, Nitte Meenakshi Institute of Technology, Bangalore, Rajarajeshwari Group of Institutions, Bangalore and Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Health Sciences, Karnataka are the associate gold sponsors.

Padmashree Group of Institutions Bangalore, Sambhram Institutions, Bangalore and Bearys Institute of Technology, Mangalore are the associate silver sponsors.